ALMOST FAMOUS FILM FESTIVAL

Recap - 48 Hour Challenge - 2009

The most original and entertaining film event to hit the southwest premiered October 22, 2009. Ten teams from past A3F Challenges put everything on the line for this very special 72 Hour All-Star Festival.

The All-Star Filmmakers randomly selected a character, either a hero or a villain, on October 2 at a special pre-challenge event. They had one week to bring their character to life through casting, costume design, settings, props and locations.

On October 9 at the combined One-Shot and Heroes & Villains Kickoff Party, the All-Star teams were given a Theme, a Prop and a Line of Dialogue and had exactly 72 hours to make a 6-10 minute film.

The theme: Remorse, prop: a Liquid that a character spills onto him/herself or onto another character and the line of dialogue: "Next time, things will be different."

The screening of the 10 films delighted the audience with amazing creativity and style with some of the filmmakers even dressing up as their characters. A fun night at the movies as we celebrated independent filmmaking in Arizona.

The Top 3 films were Squishy Studios, Masters of Daring, (tie) Victory Angel Films, Graceland, (2nd) Joshua Trevor Laney, True Luck, (tie) Dynamicfilm + Never Average, (3rd) The Infected Andersen Crine Productions, Revelation

"Just wanted to let you know my heartfelt thanks and how impressed we all are by the size of the organization you put together for the festival. It's amazing!!!" --
Bivas Biswas,
DIB Productions
